REGULATION

The 31st December, 1982

No. 1/4(22)-80-2 FR-II.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India, and all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor of Haryana hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Punjab Civil Services Rules, Volume II, in their application to the State of Haryana, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Punjab Civil Services, Volume II (Haryana Fourth Amendment) Rules, 1982.

2. These rules shall come in force with effect from the 31st March, 1982.

3. In the Punjab Civil Services Rules, Volume II, in rule 3.17 after note 2, the following notes shall be inserted, namely:—

Note 3(a) In respect of temporary employees of the following categories who render service under the Central/State Governments prior to securing posts under the Central/State Governments on their own volition in response to advertisements or circulars, including those by Union/State Public Service Commission and who are eventually confirmed in their new posts, the proportionate pensionary liability in respect of temporary service rendered under the Central/State Governments to the extent such service would have qualified for grant of pension under the rules of the respective Government, will be shared by the concerned Governments on a service share basis :—

- (1) Those who having been retrenched from the service of Central/State Governments secured on their own, employment under State/Central Government either with or without interruption between the date of retrenchment and date of new appointment.
- (2) Those who while holding temporary posts under Central/State Governments apply for posts under State/Central Government, through proper channel/with proper permission of the administrative authority concerned.

Explanation :—

Where an employee in category (2) is required for administrative reasons for satisfying a technical requirement, to tender resignation from the temporary post held by him before joining the new appointment, a certificate to the effect that such resignation had been tendered for administrative reasons and/or to satisfy a technical requirement, to join with proper permission, the new posts, may be issued by the authority accepting the resignation. A record of this certificate may also be made in his service book under proper attestation to enable him to get this benefit at the time of retirement.

The gratuity, if any, received by the Government employee for temporary service under the Central/State Governments will, however, have to be refunded by him to the Government concerned.

(b) Those employees who while holding temporary posts under Central/State Governments apply for post under Centre/State Governments direct without permission and resign their previous post to join the new appointment under the Central/State Governments will not be entitled to count their previous service for pension.
